FOREWORD

This report provides statistical data on the principal provisions contained in collective agreements covering Ontario municipal government employees, except police and fire-fighters. All such agreements on file in the Ministry's Collective Agreements Library in December 1977 were analyzed. The 258 agreements studied covered a total of 31,267 employees.

The report is divided into two parts. Part I includes 56 tables on the identifying characteristics and substantive provisions studied. The tables are grouped in eight sections, by related provisions. Section 1 shows the distribution of the agreements by location, union, duration, expiry date and type and size of bargaining unit. Section 2, deals with union security; Section 3, with hours and overtime; Section 4, with shift premiums; Section 5, with pay guarantees. Section 6, covers allowances for work clothing and uniforms; Section 7, pay for time not worked; and Section 8, health insurance and pension plans.

Part II of the report consists of one table - Table 57 - setting forth, by agreement, the wage rates provided for the two basic manual and clerical occupations most commonly found in municipal agreements - labourer and clerk-typist. The number of agreements listed in this table is less than the number covered in the tables in Part I since some agreements did not include these occupations. The table shows the single, or minimum and maximum rates paid for each of the occupations during the term of the agreement, and indicates the pay periods involved and whether the rates were approved by the Anti-Inflation Board. The effective date of each rate and the expiry date of the agreement are also shown.

The report was prepared in the Research Branch of the Ontario Ministry of Labour.
